- Give credit for appropriateness of format.
- Look for a logical approach in all writing.

NOTE:

- The points given below each topic in this memorandum serve only as a guide to markers.
- Allowance must be made for a learner's own interpretation of the topic, even if it differs from the points given or from a marker's own views or interpretations.

QUESTION 1

Learners are required to write ONE essay of 250–300 words on ONE of the topics given. Learners may write in any genre: narrative, descriptive, reflective, argumentative, expository, discursive or a combination of any of these.

- 1.1 This is a descriptive essay. Credit learners for the use of adjectives linked to the five senses. Note that the 'scene' can be either negative or positive – no mention has been made of 'a beautiful scene'. Give them credit for originality. [20]
- 1.2 Narrative essay. Focus should be on the experience and some element of description. Credit should be given for mood (emotion) in the essay, because it is stated in the title that there is anticipation. Good, gripping introduction, good development of narrative in paragraph form and a good conclusion. [20]
- 1.3 Reflective essay. This can also be a narrative essay, telling one person's 'awkward' story and demonstrating what is meant by the quote. Credit learners' original thoughts. [20]
- 1.4 Discursive essay. Reasons must be given for why/or why not he/she will also pack his/her bags and leave S.A. Keep in mind that this is Grade 9 level. [20]
- 1.5 Persuasive essay. Learner must state an opinion and write an essay in which he/she tries to persuade the reader. [20]

- 1.6      1.6.1 The world of the teenager as described by a teenager. [20]

1.6.2 Difficult circumstances. Poverty. Goal-orientated despite circumstances. The great gap between the rich and the poor in S.A. Narrative essay about a specific life story. Credit originality. [20]

1.6.3 The danger of drugs and the effect they have on teenagers. The high percentage of teens using drugs in S.A. versus the positive effects of participating in sport and staying fit. This can also be a narrative essay based on a true story or a fictional story. Credit originality. [20]

TOTAL SECTION A: 20

SECTION B: TRANSACTIONAL TEXTS

Learners are required to respond to ONE of the topics set. The body of the response must be 160–180 words in length. The language, register, style and tone must be appropriate to the context.

- 2.1 Learners live in different towns, villages and cities. Keep this in mind when assessing this letter. The format must be correct and the language must be informal. No slang is allowed. Focus must be on the opportunity. [10]
- 2.2 The introductory paragraph must include the 5 w's (who, when, where, what and why). More detail of what was witnessed in paragraph two. Response by witness in direct speech. Allow the learner to express his/her own views on Ubuntu. Good conclusion. [10]
- 2.3 Correct format. Format of the formal letter. Salutation: Sir/Madam, Subject line. Introductory paragraph stating the reason for writing. More detail in paragraph two. Personal information in paragraph three and a good conclusion. [10]
