

HISTORY

Task 10

25

Name: _____

Time duration: 1 hour

Question 1:

1. List two different types of sources of information that can be used to find out about the history of great leaders. (2)

Question 2:

2. Match column A with the correct answer in column C.
Write only the letter of the correct answer from Column C in Column B. (5)

Column A	Column B	Column C
2.1. Lord Irwin		a) In 1993, Mandela shared the Nobel peace prize with the president as that time.
2.2. Madiba		b) Gandhi signed an agreement with the Viceroy of India, which included the removal of the tax salt.
2.3. F W De Klerk		c) A form of protest that Mandela led in prison so that conditions would improve.
2.4. Mahatma		d) A name given to Gandhi which means "great soul".
2.5. Hunger strikes		e) A clan name given to Mandela as a sign of respect and appreciation.

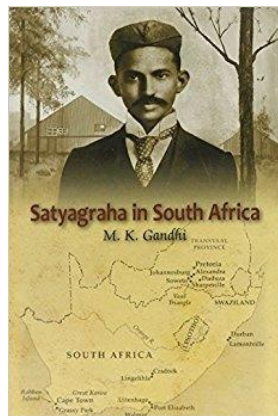

Question 3:

3.1. What is a leader? Explain. (1)

3.2. List three characteristics of a good leader. (3)

Question 4:

4. Look at the picture below.

"Satyagraha is the force which is born of truth and of love".

4.1. Did the leader in the picture above believe in violent or non-violent protests? Explain (2)

Question 5:

While Nelson Mandela was in jail, people held strong protests which were getting more and more violent.

5.1. Nelson Mandela was released from prison after ___years on the ___February 1990. (2)

Question 6:

6.1. What is the new set of laws for South Africa called and what is its function. (2)

Question 7:

7.1. Both Nelson Mandela and Gandhi were great leaders. Explain 3 similarities about these leaders. (3)

7.2. Discuss why so many people left their homes to join the salt march? (3)

7.3. Give two examples of unfair treatment during the apartheid era. (2)
