

Grade 5 Geography Open Book Test Memo

Question 1

(6)

1.1.1. C

1.1.2. E

1.1.3. F

1.1.4. A

1.1.5. B

1.1.6. D

1.2.1. False, physical maps show natural features such as mountains and rivers. (1)

1.2.2. True. (1)

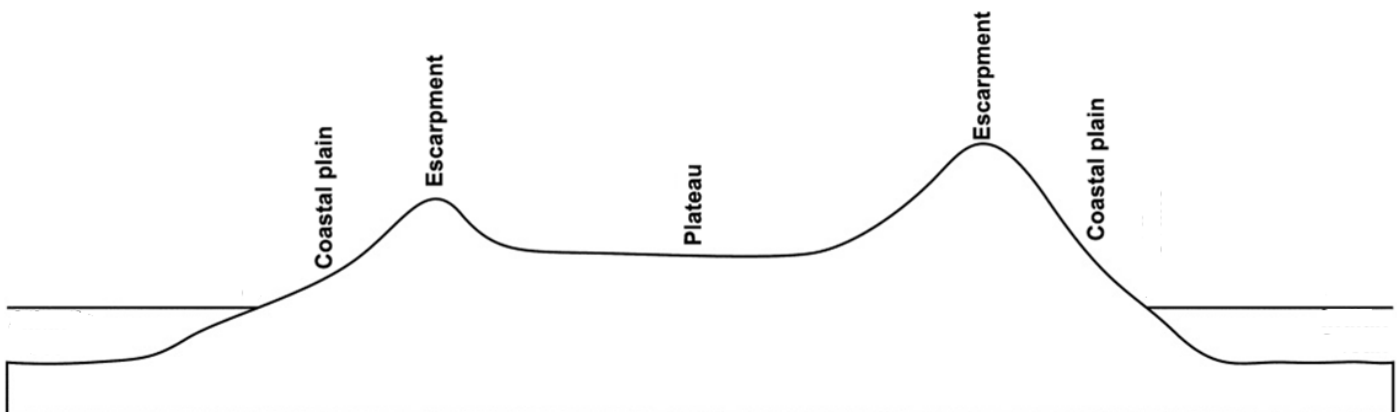

1.2.3. False, The Hole in the Wall was created by waves. (1)

Question 2

2.1. The name of a place often gives people an idea of what the place looks like and its physical features. They are also sometimes named after an important person, animal, event or plant, which was closely linked to the culture of the people who found and named the place. (3)

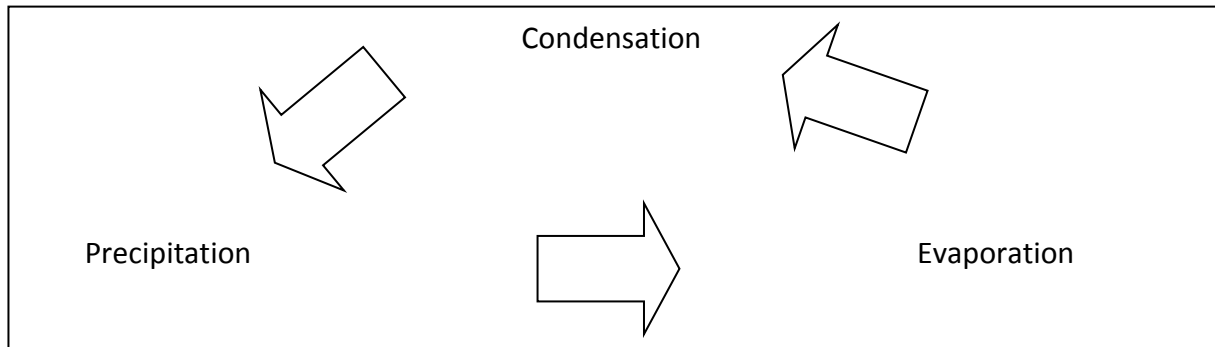

2.2. Capes are pieces of land that stick out into the sea. Bays are curves in the coastline which are usually found in between capes and are u-shaped. (2)

2.3. (4)

2.4. Water is evaporated from the earth's surface and then the process of condensation occurs which therefore causes precipitation. High in the mountains when rainfall occurs this water supply flows into river and in other parts of the mountain where smaller rivers are formed which are known as tributaries join the main river and makes its way to the sea and this is known as the river mouth. (4)

2.5. (2)

Question 3

3.1.1. (6)

- Form a community recycling project.
- Reduce the use of electricity in the house.
- Collect rain water.
- Use energy efficient light bulbs.
- Try not to waste paper.
- Promote the use of public transportation.

Teacher discretion will be used.